DIVERSITY AND DECISION MAKING
GENERAL PSYCHOLOGY – Kevin Salisbury

The world is threatened by an imminent nuclear holocaust. You are in a position to choose six of the people listed below to survive the explosion. You know that there will be limited survivors all around the world. You have 15 minutes to complete the task. You must work together as a group to arrive at a decision. It is suggested that you avoid simply voting.

The people you have to choose from:

- Latina welfare mom
- Infertile Rabbi
- Asian teenager with a drug problem
- HIV positive, African American scientist
- Spanish speaking child care worker
- Gay construction worker
- Young Jewish child
- Wealthy white philanthropist in a wheelchair
- Native American holistic healer
- African American male athlete
- Asian Physician
